About Us

Intrahealth was founded in New Zealand, by New Zealand doctors. We have been serving the Community Health market in New Zealand for more than 25 years, and understand the diverse needs of health care delivery here.

We support community health providers right through to enterprise regional solutions, comprising many thousands of users.

We've taken our New Zealand experiences to the world, and in 2024 Intrahealth came under the HEALWELL AI Company, to further enhancing our ability to deliver innovative solutions.
