Case Study

How Cortico helped Kensington Medical Clinic eliminate daily appointment phone calls.

Kensington Medical Clinic (KMC) is a family and specialist practice in Burnaby, BC. When you visit KMC, the first thing you notice is how quiet it is, despite serving hundreds of patients daily. Patients are calm, and are served right away.

Patients were now able to book their appointments directly online, avoiding the need to phone in to schedule a time with a specific doctor. As a result, KMC is realizing over $3,300 per month in administrative savings.

Cortico's software package also enhanced KMC's online presence, increasing visibility of the clinic to capture new patients. As a result, KMC saw a 31% booking increase in the month of May 2021 compared to August 2020.

See why clinics are switching to Cortico

A 30-minute call could transform your practice forever.

Before Cortico, we had over 800 phone calls every day from patients booking or rescheduling an appointment. After Cortico, we have zero phone calls.
